Westchester Loves to Read Program Guidelines

Dates: 10/1/2018 - 5/5/2019

Days: 216

Threshold: 4,000 mins

Prize: Pass to Playland Opening Day

Rules:

In an effort to promote reading at a young age, we are proud to announce the "Westchester Loves to Read" initiative. Open to students County-wide in grades pre-k-5, this reading incentive initiative asks students to log their reading time beginning on October 1, 2018 and ending on May 5, 2019. Students who read 4,000 minutes during that time, or roughly 15-20 minutes a day, will receive a free pass to Playland Park's Opening Day. It's as simple as that. Read. Log. Win.

For any questions, contact the Communications Department at my office at (914) 995-2900 or Communications@WestchesterGov.com.

Special message from Westchester County Executive George Latimer

George Latimer
County Executive

Dear Parents and Guardians of Westchester County Students Grades Pre-K-5:

In an effort to promote reading at a young age, I am proud to announce the “Westchester Loves to Read” initiative. Open to students County-wide in grades pre-k-5, this reading incentive initiative asks students to log their reading time beginning on October 1, 2018 and ending on May 5, 2019. Students who read 4,000 minutes during that time, or roughly 15-20 minutes a day, will receive a free pass to Playland Park’s Opening Day. It’s as simple as that. Read. Log. Win.

Attached to this letter is a reading log where students and guardians can log reading time - and when they have reached 4,000 minutes submit the log to their teacher. After May 5, 2019, all students who have reached the 4,000 minute threshold will be contacted for their prize.

For any questions, contact the Communications Department at my office at (914) 995-2900 or Communications@WestchesterGov.com.

I am truly looking forward to seeing all of the winning logs come in and seeing you all at Playland!

George Latimer
